

DPG DEGREE COLLEGE
(Affiliated to MDU Rohtak)

Sector-34, Near Marble Market, Gurugram 122001

M.A.- Political Science

Programme outcomes listed as follows:

Understanding of basic concepts about the Western political thinkers.

Understanding of basic concepts about the indian political thinkers.

Understanding different ideologies about the indian political system and theories.

Program Outcomes and Course Outcomes

	Subject: Western Political Thought (1st & 2nd sem)
	1.To give an understanding about the concepts to origin of state. 2. To give an understanding about the views of western and indian political thinkers. 3.To give an understanding about the origination of political thoughts. 4. To give different ideas given by political thinkers.	At the end of the course, the student will be able to: Applying the positive thinking in their life. Understand the clearity of origin of the state. Know about the different ideas of political thoughts.
	Subject: Indian Government & Politics
	1.Togive an understanding of the indian political culture. 2. To give an understanding about the indian govt. And politics. 3.To give an understanding about the indian administrative system. 4. To give an understanding about the different concepts of caste, class, religion etc.	At the end of the course, 1. 1. Understand the political concepts with detail knowledge. 2. Apply the politics, including freedom, equality, individuality, democracy and justice in their day to day life. 3. Create better political environment in the country.
	Subject: International Politics (1st& 2ndSem)

	Apply abstract theory and methodology to grasp and evaluate global political significant events. Grasp normative assumptions inherent in analytical expositions. Analyze the major issues in world today and its complexities. Develop sense of some important theoretical approaches to understand international relations. Comprehend and critically examine the major trends and issues in international relations. 6. Analyze the complexities of the globalized world. 7. Discuss the basic structure, key actors , institutions and their functioning.	At the end of the course, 1. Analyse and explain contemporary international phenomena, including identifying and assessing the positions and interests of key international subjects, drawing on theoretical insights from more than one discipline. 2. Identify important historical continuities and changes in international relations and in the machinery of diplomacy. 3. Formulate and communicate rigorous arguments, whether explanatory (social scientific) or prescriptive (ethical or legal), applied to a global or international context. 4. Engage in negotiations in an international context, including preparing files for international negotiators and contributing to efficient teamwork.
5	Paper: Public Administration (1st& 2ndSem)
	1. Knowledge about public administration theory, research and practice. 2. Analytical and critical thinking skills to inform public and community problem-solving and decision-making process. 3. An understanding of the ethical basis for public services. 4. Explain how different environments impact public and administration. 5. Capable to define and analyze key terms, ideas and concepts of public administration. 6. Familiar with the social forces that affect the creation of public policies. 7. Able to examine, appraise and contribute to the field of public administration.	At the end of the course, 1 Demonstrate critical thinking, research, and communication skills as applied to the public and private sectors. 2. Explain the cross-cultural context of public and private institutions operating in a global environment. 3. Manage diversity issues within an organizational framework.
	Paper: Research Methodologies (1st& 2ndSem)
	1. To give an understanding of the research methods in political science. 2. To give an understanding about the primary and secondary sources. 3. To give knowledge of the base of research.	At the end of the course, 1. Apply the research ideas in their research if they will do. 2. Apply different methods to understand the research facts. 3. Use sources in research work and See the subject in a scientific manner.
	Paper: Contemporary Political Thought And Theory (3rd & 4th Sem)
	1. To give an understanding about the views of Indian and western political thinkers.	At the end of the course, 1. Apply political ideas in their political life.

	2. To give an understanding about the life sketch of indian political thinkers. 3.To give an understanding about the political ideology. 4.To give an understanding about the contribution of the views of political thinkers.	2.Apply the moral values in their life. 3.Know about the life struggle of political thinkers. 4.Know apply positiveness of political ideas in their day to day life.
	Paper: : Comparative Politics & Political Analysis (3rd & 4th Sem)
	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Create a good understanding of the field of comparative politics, including big concepts, and theoretical approaches. 2. Understand the meaning of fundamental concepts in comparative political analysis including the state, nations, society, regimes, and multi-level governance. 3. Covers case studies of politics in developed, developing and transforming countries. 4. Develop an ability to critically assess and apply theories of comparative politics to everyday political realities. 5. Develop an analytical knowledge and practical skills to understand comparative politics worldwide. 6. Understand the differences between centrally planned economies, mixed economies and welfare states. 7. Understand and critically assess presidential, semi-presidential and parliamentary systems. 	At the end of the course, <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Participate as a civically engaged member of society; 2. Analyze political and policy problems and formulate policy options; 3. Use electronic and traditional library resources to research key local, state, national and international policy issues and present results; 4. Demonstrate competency with basic tools underlying modern social science research including competency in statistics and qualitative analysis 5. Demonstrate critical thinking, including the ability to form an argument, detect fallacies, and marshal evidence, about key issues of public policy and politics; 6. Discuss the major theories and concepts of political science and its subfields; and Deliver thoughtful and well articulated presentations of research findings.
	Paper: : International Law (3rd&4thSem)
	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Understand the principles of sovereignty and of the operation of jurisdiction. 2. Define, explain, distinguish and apply the basic concepts and terminology of international law. 3. Define and contrast in many aspects of the international law relating to treaties and the use of force. 4. Understand the concept of international legal personality and the 	At the end of the course, <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1.Know the role of india with the neighbourhood countries. 2.The international identity of india. 3.Know about the role of different international organisations. 4.Know the participation of india in international activities.

	identity of the subject of international law. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 5. Identify the nature of international law and the structure of the international legal system. 6. Study the impact of international law on diverse peoples and the critique implementation on international law. 7. Identify and appraise the various theoretical perspectives on the formation and operation of the international legal system.
	Paper : Theory & Practice of Diplomacy (3rd& 4thSem)
	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Understanding the historical origin of diplomacy and protocol. 2. Explain the fundamentals of diplomatic negotiations. 3. Discuss the difference between bilateral and multilateral diplomacy. 4. . Understand the complexity of the institutions and processes by which states and others represents themselves and their interests to one another. 	At the end of the course, the student will be able to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Understand theories of the reason for and purpose of diplomacy; and possess a broad grasp of the history of diplomacy. 2. Have general understanding of the different places that diplomacy takes place. 3. Gain different facets of diplomatic practice, from the sharp end of coercive diplomacy to the soft end of cultural diplomacy. 4. Understand how analytical frameworks can be applied to specific issue areas of diplomatic practice.
	Paper: Foreign Policy of India
	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. To give an understanding about the foreign relations of india. 2. To give an understanding about the foreign policy of india. 3.To give an understanding about the international organisations. 4. To give an understanding about the role of india at international level. 	At the end of the course, <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1.Know the role of india with the neighbourhood countries. 2.The international identity of india. 3.Know about the role of different international organisations. 4.Know the participation of india in international activities.