

Guiding the students for NET/GATE/Competitive Examinations

The Department of Chemistry Conducted the extra classes to guide the students for the competitive exams. Daily Practice Paper (DPP) was given to students to build up the concept. Previous year's question papers and study materials were provided to the students. The weeklytest was also there for the preparation for these competitive exams. It will help the student in the future.

Study material for the students