

Hands-on Training

Department of science organized a 5 days hands-on training programme from 13 June 2022 to 17th June 2022 which includes the topics Bio Plastic with banana peels, Synthesis of Aspirin and Biodiesel from waste vegetable oil. Students and teachers of all departments participated in this event. This kind of events develops team building skills in students, they can learn to work in a team.

Students of different departments participated and learnt different useful things