Session 1- A deliberation on publishing Research papers in Scopus Journal and how to write a effective paper.

Applying knowledge practically has always been the prime vision at DPG Degree College and the Second Session of Workshop was devoted primarily to the same. She focused on how to write a Research Proposal and guided how to apply for the agencies for research proposal and explained the process of application. Participants also learn about the common mistakes while publishing a Research paper through the real life experience shared by our Key note speaker.

Question and Answer session with participants

After the presentation there was an interactive Question and Answer session where participants cleared their doubts and enhanced their learning.

Both sessions of Workshop proved to be a great success. At last, the workshop was concluded by a vote of thanks by Dr Devkanya Gupta, Assistant Professor of Department of Commerce. Our participants felt privileged to be the generous audience of such expert talk on Research Papers and also provided very positive feedback to conduct such kind of workshops in future also.
