Subject – Permission for International Pi Day Celebration on 14th March 2024

Sir,

Department of Mathematics is planning to celebrate International Pi Day on 14th March at 12:30 pm.

Venue - DPG Degree Auditorium, Ground Floor.

Pi Day is a fun and educational opportunity to celebrate the mathematical constant π and its significance in our lives. It educates students to enhance knowledge and skills useful for them in practical applications.

To celebrate this day, we propose organizing a series of activities and events for the students and faculty of the department. Here are some ideas for the event:

Activities on International Pi Day

1. Math's Anagram Competition
2. Hidato Puzzle contest
3. Mathematical Rangoli Contest

Requesting you to consider this proposal and provide approval.

Thanks and Regards

DEPARTMENT OF MATHEMATICS

Date: 14/03/2024

REPORT

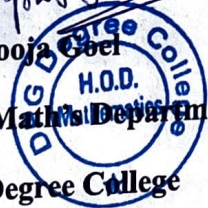

Department of Mathematics has organized “International Pi Day” on 14th March 2024. Pi Day is an annual celebration of the mathematical constant π (pi). Pi Day is observed on March 14 (the 3rd month) since 3, 1, and 4 are the first three significant figures of π , and it was first celebrated in 1988 by physicist Larry Shaw at the San Francisco Exploratorium. Pi day is an annual opportunity for math enthusiasts to recite the infinite digits of Pi this is a day that combines fun and education and it is worth celebrating the Pi Day. Activities included Math’s Anagram, Hidato Puzzle, and Mathematical Rangoli, engaging both undergraduate and postgraduate students. Certificates were awarded to top performers and all participants. The event concluded with a vote of thanks, celebrating the significance of π and fostering mathematical enthusiasm and community spirit.
