“BRIEF INFORMATION ABOUT THE EVENT:

As part of the National Service Scheme's commitment to community outreach, a group of NSS volunteers from DPG Degree College visited the Old Age Home, sec 04, gurugram on 11th march 2025. The visit aimed to bring joy, companionship, and emotional support to the elderly residents.

The team, comprising 70 volunteers and 6 faculty coordinators, was warmly welcomed by the staff and residents. The day began with a formal introduction session where the volunteers interacted with the elderly, listened to their stories, and shared their own experiences. The volunteers also assisted the staff in serving lunch and helped with cleaning and organizing common areas. Through these interactions, the students learned valuable lessons about empathy, patience, and the importance of caring for the elderly.
