Report: One-Day Seminar on Financial Literacy and Investor Awareness

Venue: Room No.214, Conference Hall, Commerce Department

Date: October 07, 2025

Timings: 10:00 AM -12:30 PM

Introduction: The commerce department organized a seminar on “Financial Literacy and Investor Awareness” in collaboration with the Association of Mutual Funds of India (AMFI) convened by Dr. Priyanka (HOD). The two keynote speakers, Mr. Surya Kant Sharma (Senior Consultant, AMFI, Former DGM – SEBI) and Mr. Sushil Aleva (SEBI Reg. Research Analyst and Director of ISFM Pvt. Ltd) were invited to the event. Ms. Jyoti Jain and Ms. Komal, Assistant Professors in the Department of Commerce, meticulously organized the session. The seminar garnered the active participation of around 120 students from both undergraduate and postgraduate programs, as well as faculty members.

Objective: The seminar aimed to provide attendees with a solid grasp of key financial concepts and principles, including budgeting, investing, and debt management. It also emphasized the practical application of modern financial instruments and different investment options. This approach was designed to help participants make well-informed decisions and skillfully navigate the complexities of today’s financial markets from an early stage.

Description: The session commenced with a warm welcome from the host, Ms. Jyoti Jain, followed by the felicitation of the esteemed guests. The Principal Sir, Dr. S.S. Boken, and, The Registrar, Sh. Ashok Gogia expressed their gratitude by presenting tokens of appreciation. Sh. Surya Kant Sharma motivated the participants to invest early and elaborated on the risks and rewards of the stock markets. The second guest Mr. Sushil Aleva, enlightened the students about the career opportunities available in the financial and security markets. Additionally, he shared views on various investment instruments like IPOs and Mutual Funds, which can be looked upon as attractive instruments for investing. The attendees actively participated in the discussion round and made the session interactive.

Overall, the session was a successful event and ended on a positive note.
