Sector-34, Near Hero Honda Chowk, Behind Marble Market, Gurugram-122004

- On 18th September 2025, the students of DPG Degree College and DPG School of Technology & Management, in collaboration with health staff, performed flash mobs at several busy public locations including malls, bus-stands, railway stations, college gates, and main markets.
- Through a combination of song, dance, and short awareness messages, the initiative aimed to:
 - Share important facts about HIV/AIDS prevention
 - Encourage people to get tested regularly
 - Promote safer lifestyle choices
 - Highlight the importance of staying away from drugs for personal and community health

- The interactive and engaging nature of the flash mob attracted public attention, effectively spreading awareness and creating a positive impact on community health education.

GLIMPSES :

- The college appreciates the enthusiastic participation of students and the guidance of health staff in making this awareness campaign a successful and impactful initiative.
